

Newsmaker Commentary

Updated 10-29-06

In a world that is scary enough, Christian people ought to reflect the alternative. Although there are pagan origins to many holidays, this one being no exception, there are always things we can do to reach out to our community. We don't have to conform to the norm that glorifies witches, and warlocks and all of the elements of the dark side. We can become the positive alternative by having our home church sponsor a party for the kids. What Makes a difference is that we don't go out like a killjoy and take away the fun of dressing up. For the same token we should not partake in glorifying evil. We have to strike a healthy balance between the two. We have to do what is right and know that everything we expose our children to can make a difference in their life. We should do what glorifies God! Corinthians 10:31. "Whether, then, you eat or drink or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God."

We should be aware of the facts:

Origins of halloween-read more -click here!...